But it still takes time, and as students yourselves, you must prepare for the great event. We've prepared some information here today to help you get ready for college yourselves.

CUT TO: JIMMY PACKING	NARRATOR: One of the major things you're going to need to do in the weeks preparing for college is pack. It's best to pack on the day before you leave...that way you still have clothes to wear before college starts. It's important to remember to bring many different types of clothing and accessories to school, because you never know when you may need them!
CUT TO: JIMMY PUTTING OUTRAGEOUS CLOTHING INTO SUITCASE (HAWAIIAN SHIRTS, BOWLING SHOES, ETC.)	NARRATOR: Remember, college is a very different place from home and you're going to want to be prepared!

You had that fungus for weeks! Remember how you scared Heather? The girl you wanted to take to prom? And all because you showered in the dorms barefoot. NARRATOR: Shower shoes sound like they are definitely an essential for college. What's next on the list for packing? JOAN JOHNSON: And, Jimmy, did you remember to pack pants? JIMMY: Awww...mom!

Especially if they've been there themselves. We decided to talk to Jimmy's father, John, to see what he thinks about his son going to college at State U NARRATOR: Let me first thank you, Mr. Johnson, for being with us today. JOHN JOHNSON (JIMMY'S DAD): It's my pleasure! It's not every day you get to help your boy get ready for college! NARRATOR: Indeed! heh, heh, heh. So what did you bring when you went to college? JOHN: Oh lots of things! Lots of clothes, and my stereo. I had these huge speakers. I had the hardest time finding space for them! Lemme see...I brought my goldfish, Goldy, and a whole lot of other stuff. I'm sure if he brings half the things I brought, that he'll fit right in at my Alma Mater. NARRATOR: So you went to State University JOHN: Yes indeedy! I'm a Woodchuck!

VIDEOAUDIONARRATOR:

That must double, or even triple your pride!

JOHN:

Yes! It really does. Jimmy's going to do just fine at State U. Maybe he'll even get my old room! Ah, if those walls could talk...heh heh heh.

NARRATOR:

That would be a great surprise! Tell me, you're obviously a successful man with a wonderful and loving family, do you attribute all of your success to having graduated from State U?

JOHN:

Actually, I never graduated. I had a little run-in with the dean, and then the police got involved... (trails off)

NARRATOR:

(nervous laugh) That's wonderful... But let me ask you, Mr. Johnson, is there anything your son should remember to do before he leaves for college that you wish you had done before you had left?

JOHN:

Well...his will is up to date, and his room is clean. He doesn't have any girlfriends now that I know of...ah, yes. He should definitely remember to bring pants.

NARRATOR:

So there you have the secret to collegiate success: Pants!
